

FACULTY OF FORENSIC & LEGAL MEDICINE

of the Royal College of Physicians of London

Registered Charity No 1119599

How to obtain specialist registration in Forensic and Legal Medicine (GFM and/or SOM)

Tuesday 12 May 2020

Learning Objectives

- To be aware of the GMC regulations for specialist registration.
- To learn how to obtain a relevant qualification.
- To understand the GMC Certificate of Eligibility for Specialist Registration (CESR) requirements.
- To understand how a CESR application is assessed.

Presenter

Professor Ian Wall MB ChB(Hons) FRCP FRCGP FFFLM FFCFM(RCPA) FACLM SFFMLM DMJ (Clin)

Professor Wall has been a GP for 40 years and a Forensic Physician for over 30 years working part time in both disciplines for the past 20 years. He is one of only four doctors on the Specialist Register for Forensic and Legal Medicine obtaining this via the GMC Certificate of Eligibility for Specialist Registration (CESR) route in 2017.

Ian deals with the full range of clinical forensic medicine and has served as President and Academic Dean of the FFLM and is currently a member of the Joint Royal Colleges of Physicians Training Board Specialist Advisory Committee in Forensic and Legal Medicine. He was the first David Jenkins Professor of Forensic and Legal Medicine and has an academic honorary appointment as Visiting Professor at Teesside University.