

Clinical Leadership

Tues 18 August 2020

Dr Caroline Osborne-White

Caroline graduated from Cambridge University in 2004 and undertook her house jobs in Ipswich Hospital.

In 2006 she spent some time as a medical defence paralegal before completing her MA degree in medical law and ethics at Kings College, London in 2007.

Caroline went on to complete GP training, initially in central London before working as a GP Registrar in North Yorkshire. She became a medico-legal adviser in 2010 and joined the MDDUS in 2013. She has a particular interest in professionalism as it relates to clinical risk.

Learning Objectives

- To discuss the importance of self-awareness in the context of clinical leadership
- To examine leadership and how it relates to clinical risk
- To explore ways to improve as a leader
