

Assisting the Coroner: How to reduce the risks to you when involved in an Inquest? – Tuesday 25 October 2022

Dr Clare Stapleton

Dr Clare Stapleton is a Medicolegal Consultant at the London Office of Medical Protection. Before joining MPS in 2019, she was a Consultant in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care at Wexham Park Hospital, Frimley Health for 16 years. She was the patient safety lead clinician, led the mortality review process and set up the Medical Examiner service at Frimley Health.

At Medical Protection she assists members by providing medicolegal advice. She supports and advises health care practitioners involved in Serious Incidents, inquests, disciplinary and regulatory investigations.

Assisting the Coroner: How to reduce the risks to you when involved in an Inquest? – Tuesday 25 October 2022

Professor Sarah Hull BM BCh
MA(Oxon) FFFLM LLM

Professor Hull graduated from Oxford University in 2005. She has been a forensic physician for more than 10 years and has an academic honorary appointment as Visiting Professor at the University of Ulster and is Lead Examiner for the Diploma in Legal Medicine/Part 1 MFFLM exam. She is Clinical Director at the Rowan SARC and works as Medicolegal Consultant at Medical Protection. She has medical managerial experience across the private sector, primary and secondary care, having been Medical Director of an Out of Hours organisation, Assistant Medical Director at NHS England and Deputy Medical Director in a Foundation Trust.

