

Differences in Forensic Medicine: Middle East and the UK – Monday 05 June 2023

Dr Dina Ibrahim

Forensic Medical Examiner in the Thames Valley Sexual Assault Service since October 2022. Associate Professor of Forensic Medicine in the Department of Forensic Medicine and Clinical Toxicology, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University Hospitals

I am a medical practitioner having Qualified in 2005 from the Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University in Egypt with the qualifications MBChB (Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery).

I started my career in Forensic Medicine in 2006 at the Cairo University Hospitals. In 2009, I gained the qualification of Master of Science in Forensic Medicine and Clinical Toxicology from Cairo University. In 2012, I was granted the Medical Doctorate in Forensic Medicine and Clinical Toxicology from Cairo University.

Between 2012 and 2019: Specialist Forensic medical examiner at the Forensic Medicine Department and Mortuary at the General Directorate of Criminal Evidence, Ministry of Interior, Kuwait State.

Between January 2017 and January 2019: a member of the higher committee for child protection and combating abuse in the Ministry of Health, Kuwait, and a Certified Trainer in Child Protection at the Kuwait Institute of Medical Specialities.

I have published and presented many research papers and case studies in international Forensic medicine scientific journals and conferences. I have taken many training courses in university and higher education teaching and Forensic medicine.

I am an affiliate member by qualification in the Faculty of Forensic & Legal Medicine FFLM since 2019, and a member of the Royal College of Pathologists as a Medical Examiner (RCPATHME) since 2022. In January/February 2022, I did a clinical observership at the three HAVENS (the SARC) Sites (Camberwell, Whitechapel, Paddington), Kings College, London.

